DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite since "the staple legs" on line 6 lacks proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Green et al. '290.

Green et al. '290 discloses the stapler as claimed including a plurality of projected lines 40 formed in parallel to one another on a clincher platform defining a clincher groove, for guiding staple legs as they are being driven, wherein the tips adjacent each groove, as per claim 7, engages the staple leg, as broadly claimed, wherein the stapler of Green et al. '290 is capable of stapling sheets of paper, if desired.

Claims 1, 3, and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japanese Patent Application '169, hereinafter JPA '169.

JPA '169 discloses the stapler as claimed including a plurality of projected lines 106 formed in parallel to one another on a clincher platform defining a clincher groove, for guiding staple legs as they are being driven, wherein the tips 122 adjacent each groove, as per claim 7, engages the staple leg, as broadly claimed, the table 102 having inclined surfaces 105 thereon, as per claim 3.

Art Unit: 3721

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JPA '169.

JPA '169 lacks the parallel projections being located on the inclined faces. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to place such locating grooves on both the inclined faces and clincher in order to more effectively ensure that the staple legs are accurately driven.
